Purpose of Processing: H.F.F., as well as the Regional Amateur Football Associations ("E.P.S.") as Data Processors on behalf of F.I.F.A., based on their statutory, but also regulatory obligation, collect and use the abovementioned personal data and proceed to their processing, with or without the use of automated means. All the information obtained will only be used to fulfill the said purposes and will not be used in an immoral manner or in violation of the provisions of the GDPR. Processing is lawful and necessary for compliance with a legal obligation to which the Controller is subject (Article 6§1 c GDPR) and at the same time, it aims to serve your requests either directly or through a third party (upon your relevant authorization), as well as to provide services to you, but also to issue the necessary documents, certification cards and certificates etc. In addition, the personal data received are used in order to contact you in case any issues arise.

Recipients of Data: The competent Department of the H.F.F. and the E.P.S., within their responsibilities, process your personal data through their staff and may transmit them to third - party service providers (foreign Federations, Associations etc.) located either inside or outside the EU., when this is deemed necessary for the execution of the Subjects' requests (international transfers, etc.). Please note that some countries may not provide the same level of protection. Under special circumstances, either in defense of the rights of H.F.F., or when provided by law or court decisions or decisions issued by the Hellenic Data Protection Authority, the recipients may be the Judicial Authorities, the Hellenic Data Protection Authority, or other Independent Authorities.

Time of Retention of Personal Data: H.F.F. processes the personal data for the necessary period of time, in order to fulfill the above-mentioned purposes, which is the shortest possible. In any case, the data will be kept for a period of five (5) years from the loss of the player's status. If the law or regulatory acts oblige the H.F.F. in keeping personal data for a period longer than the above, the retention periods will be extended accordingly. Finally, if until the end of this period of time, legal actions which concern you directly or indirectly are in progress, the above retention time, is extended until the issuance of an irrevocable court decision. The documents signed by the Subjects, in which personal data have been registered, may, after the lapse of five years, be kept in digital form. After the above periods of time, your personal data will be destroyed.

Your rights and how to exercise them: You have the rights provided in Articles 12-22 of GDPR. At the same time, you have the right to request the transfer of the data you have provided to us, to another Federation. You also have the right to file a complaint to the Hellenic Data Protection Authority (www.dpa.gr), if you consider that your rights are violated in any way. The exercise of the above rights can be realized via the electronic address: dpo@epo.gr. H.F.F. will use all the possible ways so as to satisfy your requests and will respond to you within thirty (30) days and, only if this is not possible, will inform you of the necessary extension of the above deadline, but which will not exceed sixty (60) additional days. The exercise of the rights is free of charge and there may be a charge only in cases of proven abuse of the right, which entails costs for H.F.F.

In case of a minor football player, the above-mentioned statement is signed by the legal guardian.
